GROUP RELEASES TEST RESULTS ON POISONED PETS

Kay Seltitzas will today release results of toxic heavy metals tests on two cats from Rosebery. Ms Seltitzas will also release the tragic stories of a family of dogs, and the two cats who have suffered terribly as a result of heavy metal poisoning in Rosebery.

Marsha Stejskal, who has been diagnosed with heavy metal poisoning is the owner of the two cats but is unable to attend the Media Conference due to ill health.

Ms Seltitzas and Lindsay Phillips, both diagnosed with heavy metal poisoning, will have their two poisoned black Labrador dogs with them on the Parliament House Lawns.
